Description of Business and Overall Performance

Pacific Imperial Mines Inc. is a mineral exploration company engaged in the acquisition and exploration of mineral properties.

In September 2004, through a reverse take-over (“RTO”) the Company acquired a mineral exploration venture which included two mineral exploration licenses and three mining licenses in “Tangshang Gold” and “Salachong Gold” located in Guangan County, Yunnan province, in the People’s Republic of China. On December 3, 2007, the Company determined that it had lost control of the assets and operations of the Company’s wholly owned subsidiary Guangan Tangshang Gold Co. (“GGC”), including the properties in China and the related mineral exploration and mining licenses to Yunnan Non-Ferrous Metals Geological Bureau (“YNGB”) and Yunnan Non-Ferrous Metals Resource (Group) Co. Ltd. (the “Operator”) As the Company no longer controlled the net assets and operations of GGC, it effectively recognized their disposal on that date. On August 20, 2010, the Company entered into a Share Purchase Agreement to sell its interest in its wholly-owned subsidiaries, Goldchina Holdings Group Limited (“Goldchina”) including GGC, to the Operator for $476,000 in cash and the return of the 15,104,760 common shares of the Company. These common shares were subsequently cancelled in November 2010.

Currently, the Company does not have a mineral property. The Company is actively seeking and evaluating various projects.

As the Company is still in exploration stage and non-revenue producing, the Company has experienced losses since its inception. During the nine months ended March 31, 2012, the Company recorded a net loss of $231,991. As of March 31, 2012, the Company has accumulated deficit of $4,260,696.

The Company can meet its current commitments as they become payable, but any future commitments including the completion of acquisitions, exploration and development of mineral properties and projects, is dependent on the ability of the Company to obtain the necessary financing. As of March 31, 2012, the Company had a working capital of $267,079. The Company may need to raise additional funds to maintain the Company's operation for the next twelve months.

Mineral Interests

The Company is currently actively searching for a mineral property in Canada and Brazil.

Exploration Activities

There was no exploration activity during the nine months ended March 31, 2012.

- (1) Wages of $93,074 during the period to an employee commencing July 2011;

- (4) Increase in management fees to a related company of $10,800 compared to same period of last year;

Liquidity and Capital Resources

The Company's business is exploration and it does not generate cash flow from operations to adequately fund its activities and has therefore relied principally upon the issuance of securities and loans and advances from directors for financing. During the nine months ended March 31, 2012, the Company incurred a net loss of $231,991. As of March 31, 2012, the Company had working capital of $267,079. The increase in working capital of $73,345 as compared to the year ended June 30, 2011 was primarily due to the proceeds received of $300,000 from the private placement of 2,000,000 shares. The Company may not have enough resources to acquire new mineral properties and finance its operations in the next twelve months and may need to raise additional funds.

The Company intends to continue relying upon the issuance of securities to finance the Company's future activities but there can be no assurance that such financing will be available on a timely basis under terms acceptable to the Company.

Risk and Uncertainties

While the Company does not currently hold an interest in mineral properties in a foreign country, it is in the business of acquisition, exploration and evaluation of mineral properties, and accordingly it will be exposed to the laws governing the mining industry in the country from which the mineral properties are acquired with respect to such matters as taxation, repatriation of profits, restrictions on production, export controls, environmental compliance, and expropriation of property or limitations on foreign ownerships, as well as shifts in the political stability of the country and labour unrest, any of which could adversely affect the Company and its exploration and production activities in the country.

The Company's business, results of operations, financial condition, and the trading price of the Company's common shares could be materially adversely affected by any of the foregoing risks and by other risks, including risks related to development of mineral deposits, metal prices, title matters, reclamation costs, gold and other base metal prices volatility, competition, additional funding requirements, insurance, currency fluctuations, conflicts of interest, and share trading volatility. Any of these risks could have a material adverse effect on the business, operations or financial condition of the Company.

Critical Accounting Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in accordance with IFRS requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of certain assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of certain revenue and expenses during the period. Actual results could differ significantly from those estimates. Specific items requiring estimates are amortization, asset retirement obligations, future income taxes, share-based compensation, fair value of financial instruments, other accrued liabilities and contingent liabilities.

Financial Instruments

Fair value estimates of financial instruments are made at a specific point in time, based on relevant information about financial markets and specific financial instruments. As these estimates are subjective in nature, involving uncertainties and matters of significant judgement, they cannot be determined with precision. Changes in assumptions can significantly affect estimated fair values. The carrying value of cash and cash equivalents, receivable and advances, accounts payable and accrued liabilities, and amount due to related parties approximates the fair value because of the short-term nature of those instruments. The Company is not subject to significant interest and credit risks arising from these financial instruments. As the Company no longer operates in a foreign country, the Company is therefore not subject to foreign currency risk arising from changes in exchange rates between the foreign currency and Canadian dollar.

Changes In Accounting Policies

Implementation of International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRS")

In 2008, the Canadian Accounting Standards Board ("AcSB") confirmed that the transition to IFRS as issued by the International Accounting Standards Board, from Canadian GAAP will be effective for fiscal years beginning on or after January 1, 2011 for publicly accountable enterprises. Accordingly, the Company has commenced reporting on an IFRS basis in the current condensed interim financial statements. The transition date, July 1, 2010, required the restatement for comparative purposes of amounts reported by the Company for the year ended June 30, 2011.

The March 31, 2012 condensed interim financial statements have been prepared in accordance with International Accounting Standard 34, Interim Financial Reporting and IFRS 1, First-time Adoption of IFRS (IFRS 1). Subject to available elections and exemptions under IFRS 1, the Company has applied the same accounting policies in its opening IFRS balance sheet as at July 1, 2010 and throughout all periods presented, as if the policies had always been in effect. The impact of the changes to IFRS is detailed in note 9 to the condensed interim financial statements.

Recent Accounting Policies Pronouncement not yet been adopted include the following:-

IFRS 7, Financial Instruments: Disclosures

The amendments will increase disclosure required regarding the transfer of financial assets, especially if there is a disproportionate amount of transfer transactions undertaken around the end of the reporting period, and the possible effects of any risks that may remain with the entity that transferred the asset. This new standard, which is applicable for annual periods beginning on or after July 1, 2011, is not expected to significantly impact the Company.

IFRS 9, Financial Instruments

This new standard introduces new requirements for classifying and measuring financial assets and liabilities and carries over from the requirements of IAS 39, Financial instruments: Recognition and measurement derecognition of financial assets and liabilities. This new standard is not applicable until January 1, 2013 but is available for early adoption. The Company has not yet assessed the impact of this standard.

IFRS 11, Joint arrangements

The standard provides for accounting of joint arrangements by focusing on the rights and obligations of the arrangement, rather than its legal form. The standard also eliminates the option to account for jointly controlled entities using the proportionate consolidation method. The new standard is effective for periods beginning on or after January 1, 2013, with early application permitted. The Company has not yet assessed the impact of this standard.

IFRS 13, Fair value measurement

The standard sets out in a single IFRS a framework for measurement of fair value and related disclosures. The definition of fair value emphasizes that fair value is a market-based measurement, not an entity-specific measurement. This new standard is applicable for periods beginning on or after January 1, 2013, with early application permitted. The Company has not yet assessed the impact of this standard.

IAS 28, Investments in associates

IAS 28 was amended in 2011 which prescribes the accounting for investments in associates and sets out the requirements for the application of the equity method when accounting for investments in associates and joint ventures. The standard is effective for annual periods beginning on or after January 1, 2013, with early application permitted, and is not expected to significantly impact the Company.

Off-Balance-Sheet Arrangements

The Company has not entered into any off-balance-sheet arrangements.
